

- Red lines represent roof catchment area
- Blue lines represent underground drainage lines feeding the storage tank
- Green lines represent overflow drains to the existing stormwater system